A Cordial Reception

has been given to the first issue of the Bulletin. The Editor has received many verbal expressions commending the idea in general and the form in particular. This is good news; encouraging to the Editor and gratifying to the Bulletin Committee. It proves that there is a need felt for a local medium to herald the monthly congregational activities and touch upon items of personal, social and cultural interest. If the readers will be kind enough to keep this little paper on their desk and refer to it as a memorandum its value will be greatly increased and its regular publication definitely assured. Your interest is our best appreciation.

Commentary

The Park Avenue Synagogue has recently received an overflowing measure of radio publicity. In 3 broadcasts from different stations, the Jewish Theatrical Guild of America, spoke highly of our house of worship. On Lincoln's Birthday our Rabbi delivered a radio address under the auspices of the Eastern Association of Reform Rabbis. If extensive advertisement means a bigger business we ought to have a waiting list for membership in our organization.

THE SEDER

"What can be done today do not put off for tomorrow." This proverb contains the sound advice of sense and wisdom everywhere. It could be helpfully applied with regard to making your reservations for the public Seder. Let the Seder Committee know that you are coming. Take the attached postal which you received 2 weeks ago and send in your reply today. It will cheer the boys. After the 10th of March your answer will be too late to do any good.

NOTES

The readers who may be interested in the purchase of memorial names on the bronze tablet or a whole memorial window, or a cemetery plot on the congregational grounds at Mt. Carmel, kindly communicate with the Secretary regarding details and such other convenient arrangements as may be desired.

Members, seatholders and friends who are on the mailing list for our literature, kindly notify the Secretary in case of any change of address so that you may get your mail and notices promptly and help us prevent wastage of stationery and postage.

The Congregation and the Men's Club also offer their sincere congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Sam Bloom upon the celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary.

MEN'S CLUB

The next regular meeting of the Men's Club will be held at the Temple on Monday, March 2nd, 1931 at 8:30 p.m. Have the real spirit of our Club at heart and attend meetings.

At this meeting we will have the report of our Delegates who were at the Convention. Mr. Goldenkopf, chairman, will tell us in his able manner the items of interest which were transacted.

Note the dates of Meetings in March.

INTERESTING ITEMS

We note by the attendance at our meetings that things are getting pretty lively. The Prize Fight scheduled for Early in April has caused quite some discussion but rest assured that it will be. The Committee in charge will have a complete report at our next regular meeting.

Credit is surely due our Entertainment Committee, for the last open meeting which went over with a bang —If you missed Harry Hirshfield and Dr. Tintner you surely passed up a wonderful evening. Be on hand March 16th—we are staging a repeater.

* * * * *

If our chairman Goldenkopf's wife has returned from her trip to the South we may expect wonders in the form of Open Meetings.

Will wonders never stop—Seven men paid dues at our last meeting, and our Secretary was kept busy—let's pile work up for Jerry at the next meeting and all of us pay our dues for 1931 and listen to him complaining, it's sure a pleasure to watch him and Stein, our Treasurer battle over balances.

Max Engel to Nat Caro:—Park right by that stable (90th St., between Lexington and Park Avenues). O. K. Max, but after several hours the boys returned to find their car on the next block.—Answer, Parking in front of a FIRE HOUSE is not permitted—A new ruling since 1888, but we believe Nat will know better hereafter.

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

On the 15th of February, at the regular meeting of the Sunshine Club, a very interesting and entertaining talk was given by Mr. Sidney A. Coleman, Vice-President of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. The children listened very attentively to the speaker and were very receptive to the message.

We plan to have another Speaker at the next meeting which will be on the 15th of March.

Our big Purim Festival will be celebrated in the afternoon of March 1st, at 2 p.m. A novel form of entertainment will be given at this celebration. Remo Bufano's Marionettes will produce a Purim Play, "In Shushan the Capitol." In addition to other specialty numbers, refreshments will be served. An orchestra will be provided for dancing and a good time is assured to all. To help defray part of the costs a nominal charge of 25 cents per person will be made at the door. Here is your chance to have a real happy Purim time. Treat your family and friends to this good show.
